18 national bodies were represented when the resolutions were discussed

M28.1 (defect report disposition): Unanimous
WG 2 instructs its editor to prepare editorial corrigenda on the following items:

With reference to concerns expressed in N 1214:

1FFA GREEK CAPITAL LETTER OMEGA WITH VARIA

1FFB GREEK CAPITAL LETTER OMEGA WITH OXIA

amend the graphic symbols by removing the incorrect Prosgegrammeni mark (iota subscript) at the bottom right hand corner of the graphic symbols.

With reference to concerns expressed in N1214, add the following entries in Annex Q (Additional Information on Characters):

0189 LATIN CAPITAL LETTER AFRICAN D

This character is the capital letter form of the character

0256 LATIN SMALL LETTER D WITH TAIL

019F LATIN CAPITAL LETTER O WITH MIDDLE TILDE

This character is the capital letter form of the character

0275 LATIN SMALL LETTER BARRED O

The editor is instructed to add the corrigenda related to items a and b, to N 1207.

WG2 further instructs its editor to finalize the contents of N 1207 as a collection of editorial changes and forward it to SC2 secretariat for further processing by ITTF as editorial corrigenda to ISO/IEC 10646-1: 1993 (E).

M28.2 (Hebrew Cantillation marks): Unanimous
With reference to the proposal for Hebrew Cantillation marks in N1217, WG2 instructs its editor to add the set of Hebrew Cantillation marks to Table 14, as proposed in N1217, and prepare a pDAM for further processing.

M28.3 (Vietnamese DONG symbol): Unanimous
With reference to resolution M27.8 (Vietnamese DONG Symbol) adopted at WG2 meeting no. 27, WG2 instructs its editor to prepare a pDAM for further processing.

M28.4 (Irish Gaelic characters): Unanimous
With reference to N1058 and N1132R on Irish Gaelic characters, WG2 instructs its editor to add
1E9B LATIN SMALL LETTER LONG S WITH DOT ABOVE
with the glyph shown in N1132R, and prepare a pDAM for further processing.

M28.5 (Tibetan): Unanimous
With reference to the Tibetan proposal in N1238, WG2 invites the national body of China and the Unicode consortium to prepare the draft text for a pDAM on Tibetan, accommodating the results of the discussion at this meeting.

WG2 instructs its editor to prepare a pDAM based on the proposed text for pDAM from China and the Unicode Consortium, and forward it to the SC2 secretariat for further processing.

M28.6 (Runic): Unanimous
With reference to the proposal on Runic in N1210, WG2 accepts in principle the modified repertoire in category C based on the discussion at WG2 meeting no. 28.

M28.7 (Principles and Procedures): Unanimous
WG2 accepts the Principles and Procedures in document N1252 (replaces N 1116 and N 1202) as the standing document for submissions of additions of characters to 10646.

M28.8 (Annex Q): Unanimous
WG2 accepts the proposed text for Annex Q in document N1206, including the initial set of 'additional information on characters' contained in it, and instructs its editor to use this document to carry out the resolution M27.6 on dCOR-1 on AE.

M28.9 (Character Glyph Model): Unanimous
WG2 accepts N 1224 as the first working draft for a TR on 'An operational model for characters and glyphs', and instructs its convener to forward N 1224 to SC2 secretariat to be attached to the NP for balloting in JTC1.

M28.10 (Translatability of Character Names): Greece, Denmark, Switzerland, USA - NO
No abstentions; All others (14 national body representatives) YES
With reference to N1231 from the Canadian national body, WG2 resolves to place resolution M27.21 on hold, awaiting further feedback from national bodies.

M28.11 (IRG): Unanimous
WG2 instructs IRG to classify IRG's category A vertical extension repertoire referenced in N 1236, into several priority groups for WG2's consideration for inclusion or non-inclusion into the BMP.

M28.12 (Editorship): Unanimous
WG2 nominates Mr. Bruce Paterson as the project editor of ISO/IEC 10646, and requests approval from SC2.

M28.13 (Future Meetings): Unanimous
WG2 confirms the following future meeting schedule:
Meeting no. 29: 6 to 10 November 1995, in Tokyo, Japan
Meeting no. 30: 29 January to 2 February 1996 in the San Francisco Bay Area.
Meeting no. 31: 22 to 26 April 1996, in Denmark
Meeting no. 32: 12 to 16 August 1996, in Canada

M28.14 (Appreciation): By Acclamation
a. WG2 thanks Mr. Martti Lahti, FDCA, and its staff for hosting the meeting, providing secretarial and administrative support and especially for its outstanding hospitality.
b. WG2 appreciates the excellent work done so far by IRG.
